

CFOIC Heartland Israel

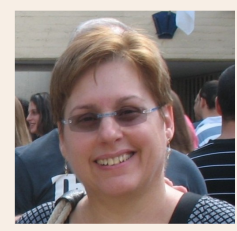

CFOIC Heartland was founded with one purpose in mind, to educate Christians about the Jews currently living in Biblical Israel – the communities of Judea and Samaria. In addition, CFOIC has sought to bridge the two worlds – the Christian world and the Jewish world.

With the help of CFOIC Heartland, Christians have stood up for Israel and have become friends and supporters of the pioneers in Biblical Israel. Through CFOIC Heartland, churches, ministries and individuals have visited the communities, met the people, and provided financial support for community projects.

CFOIC Heartland in Israel is the nerve center of this organization. Sondra Oster Baras, the Director, has her finger on the pulse of day-to-day life in Biblical Israel. Many of you have met Sondra personally. Sondra has lived in Karnei Shomron for 23 years, is married to Ed and has five children. Sondra arranges for tour groups to visit the Biblical sites and the Jewish communities in Judea and Samaria and she makes herself available to speak to any Christian group or individual who is interested in her message. She also writes our monthly letters and newsletters.

Shira Schwartz, a resident of Karnei Shomron for close to 20 years is married to Kuti and has seven children and one grandchild. Shira is a wonderful writer and helps Sondra prepare such informative publications as Nahala, Heartland Stories, Reflections from Israel as well as many other brochures and emails.

Estelle Lavi has lived in Karnei Shomron for more than a decade. She is married to Shraga and has five children of her own. Estelle coordinates tour programs for the thousands of tour groups and individuals who visit Judea and Samaria through CFOIC Heartland. In addition, our Israeli team produce films, and manage CFOIC Heartland's website. And it is from Israel, that community projects are chosen, written, promoted and brought to fruition.

But CFOIC Heartland's Israeli staff need your help. In the same way that churches and ministries are asked to adopt a community, CFOIC Heartland is seeking both churches and individuals to adopt CFOIC Heartland in Israel.

CFOIC Heartland in Israel is the heart and soul of our work. Without the dedicated staff who work tirelessly to bring us the news from the communities of Judea and Samaria and from the refugees of Gush Katif, we would accomplish very little. The work done by our Israeli staff is often unseen and unacknowledged.

CFOIC Heartland is bridging the gap between Christians and Jews, we are standing in the gap between the residents of Biblical Israel and the rest of the world. Please help CFOIC Heartland continue to bring people together, bring people to Israel, and bring love and support to the people of Biblical Israel.

Total Annual Budget for CFOIC Heartland in Israel: $150,000
